- “It is such a valuable program where I had the opportunity to meet and network with insightful people and most importantly listen to success stories from keynote speakers. The three-day workshop offered also practical strategies, real-life case studies, and expert guidance that helped me better understand market readiness, internationalization pathways, and the critical role of innovation in expanding business reach. I highly recommend this program to entrepreneurs, academics, and professionals looking to elevate their market strategies with purpose and clarity.” - Dr Samar Aad at LLWB.
